

A Level Politics

Examination of key global issues such as Human rights, the Environment and Conflict. How does power contribute to harmony and conflict?

13

13

Establish a view of the UK as a multi cultural country before examining the success of international institutions in global governance shutterstock.com - 1295866797

Political Ideologies – Developing a wider understanding of the political ideologies that underpin political decisions

12

12

Evaluating the representative function of the electoral systems in the UK and assessing the links between the links between the branches.

Assessing the role of pressure groups and determining the position of the Prime Minister in the UK

12

12

Evaluating the contribution of political parties and establishing an understanding of how Parliament holds the executive to account

Developing an understanding of democracy and the constitution.

12